

APPENDIX A:

The Opposition's Exaggerations of the CIO's Allegations in CAC ¶¶ 111, 112 & 116
(exaggerations in bold and italics)

Citation	Plaintiffs' Characterization	Citation	Plaintiffs' Actual Allegations
Opp. 16 (citing CAC ¶ 111)	"... in the case of Lontra, Cobalt sat on the adverse information 'a lot longer than [Cobalt] normally would.'"	CAC ¶ 111	"Cobalt sat on the information regarding the Lontra well 'a lot longer than they normally would.'"
Opp. 35 (citing CAC ¶¶ 111–12, 116)	"... Cobalt delayed disclosing adverse information to investors at Sonangol's request, including the existence of lower amounts of oil . . ."	CAC ¶ 111	"... Sonangol required Cobalt to ' sit on information, ' including information regarding Angolan wells such as the Lontra well."
		CAC ¶ 112	"Given the length of time that Cobalt was sitting on information about Lontra, Cobalt executive Van Whitfield expressed internally that Cobalt had obligations to its investors."
		CAC ¶ 116	Offering CIO's opinion that "there was 'not even a question' that Loengo was not a good prospect and that there was 'not even a remote chance' of success on the Loengo well. . ."
Opp. 36	Cobalt's "failure to disclose the practice of withholding information at Sonangol's request . . ."		No allegations of a "practice" in the CAC.
Opp. 46–47 (citing CAC ¶¶ 111–12, 116)	"Defendants concealed that Cobalt had agreed to Sonangol's requirement that Cobalt delay providing adverse information regarding its Angolan wells."	CAC ¶ 111	"... Sonangol required Cobalt to ' sit on information, ' including information regarding Angolan wells such as the Lontra well."
		CAC ¶ 112	"Given the length of time that Cobalt was sitting on information about Lontra, Cobalt executive Van Whitfield expressed internally that Cobalt had obligations to its investors."
		CAC ¶ 116	Offering CIO's opinion that "there was 'not even a question' that Loengo was not a good prospect and that there was 'not even a remote chance' of success on the Loengo well. . ."

Citation	Plaintiffs' Characterization	Citation	Plaintiffs' Actual Allegations
Opp. 60 (citing CAC ¶¶ 111–12)	“. . . Sonangol required Cobalt to 'sit on information,' including adverse information about its wells. "	CAC ¶ 111  CAC ¶ 112	“. . . Sonangol required Cobalt to ' sit on information, ' including information regarding Angolan wells such as the Lontra well."  "Given the length of time that Cobalt was sitting on information about Lontra, Cobalt executive Van Whitfield expressed internally that Cobalt had obligations to its investors."
Opp. 60 (citing CAC ¶¶ 111–12)	"This requirement was openly discussed at Cobalt, including during an executive meeting . . . "	CAC ¶ 111  CAC ¶ 112	“. . . this requirement that Cobalt sit on information . . . was 'openly talked about' at Cobalt. "  "Cobalt's former CIO heard in an executive meeting – which was attended by [Farnsworth] . . . that the Company decided to delay disclosure."